Durham County Utilities New Inspector

NOTIFICATION

Durham County Utilities New Inspector:

Durham County is pleased to announce the appointment of Gerald Lawson as the new Utilities Inspector for the Durham County Utilities Division.

Gerald brings three years of hands-on inspections and utility locating experience, supporting a wide range of infrastructure projects and compliance programs. His background includes field inspections, utility identification and verification, and ensuring adherence to safety and regulatory standards across diverse job sites.

In his new role, Gerald will help ensure that utility installations and system improvements throughout Durham County meet all required performance, quality, and safety criteria. His technical expertise and commitment to service will play a key role in supporting the County's mission to maintain reliable and resilient infrastructure for residents, businesses, and community partners. Gerald's contact information is below.
