

DURHAM COUNTY PUBLIC ART GUIDE

Have you taken a moment lately to enjoy the vibrant public art that brings color and character to Durham's streets and neighborhoods? Our community is home to a rich collection of murals, sculptures, and installations that spark curiosity, celebrate our culture, and create a sense of place for everyone who passes by. Public art inspires, educates, and connects us—today and for generations to come.

The Durham County Public Art Guide invites you to discover the creative spirit woven throughout Downtown Durham. Each featured artwork is accessible to the public, offering a unique opportunity to explore how art energizes our streets while honoring our shared history and culture.

Whether you're a longtime resident or visiting for the first time, this guide offers an inspiring path to experience the artwork that helps shape Durham County's identity. We hope you enjoy exploring the pieces that brighten our community's landscape.
