

Neighborhood College Presentation & Walking Tour – Cultural & Public Art Program
18 minutes walking

Public Art Stops:

here comes the sun, c. 1975 (conserved in early 1990s)
artist: Karen (stern) Perkins
Location: 119 e. Main Street

Winding Out, 2014

Robert Winkler

This public art sculpture was part of the Bull City Sculpture Show.

Major the Bull, 2004

Michael Waller and Leah Foushee

Major was cast in bronze and created from start to finish in Durham at Liberty Arts, a Studio and Foundry dedicated to enriching our communities with arts experiences that inspire, empower, educate, and entertain. The sculpture and plaza were gifted through a grant by The Central Carolina Bank to the citizens of Durham.

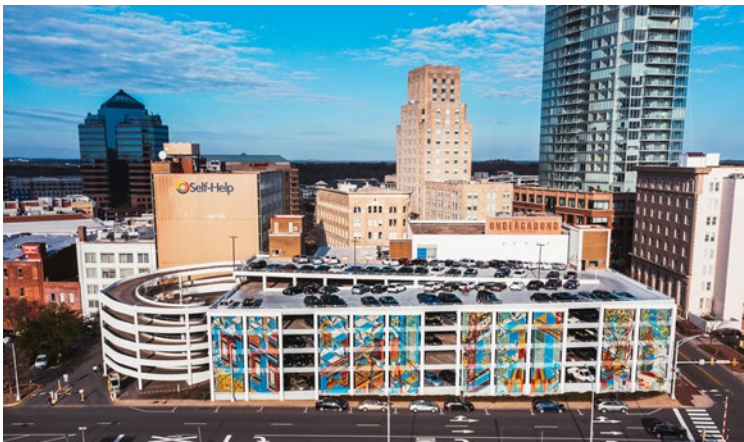

UNTITLED (NINTH ST. BAKERY) 2017

ARTIST: SCOTT NURKIN

LOCATION: 136 E CHAPEL HILL ST
(NINTH STREET BAKERY)

Candy Carver
Traffic Signal Box
2018

Corocan Street Garage

The SmART Corcoran Garage Banner Wrap received national award from the Public Art Network's Year in Review at the Americans for the Arts' Annual Convention.

Artist: Olalekan Jeifous (LeK)

Photographer: Estlin Haiss

Last Stop:

David Wilson (County Project)

Bull (Toro)